

Dynamics of milk prices

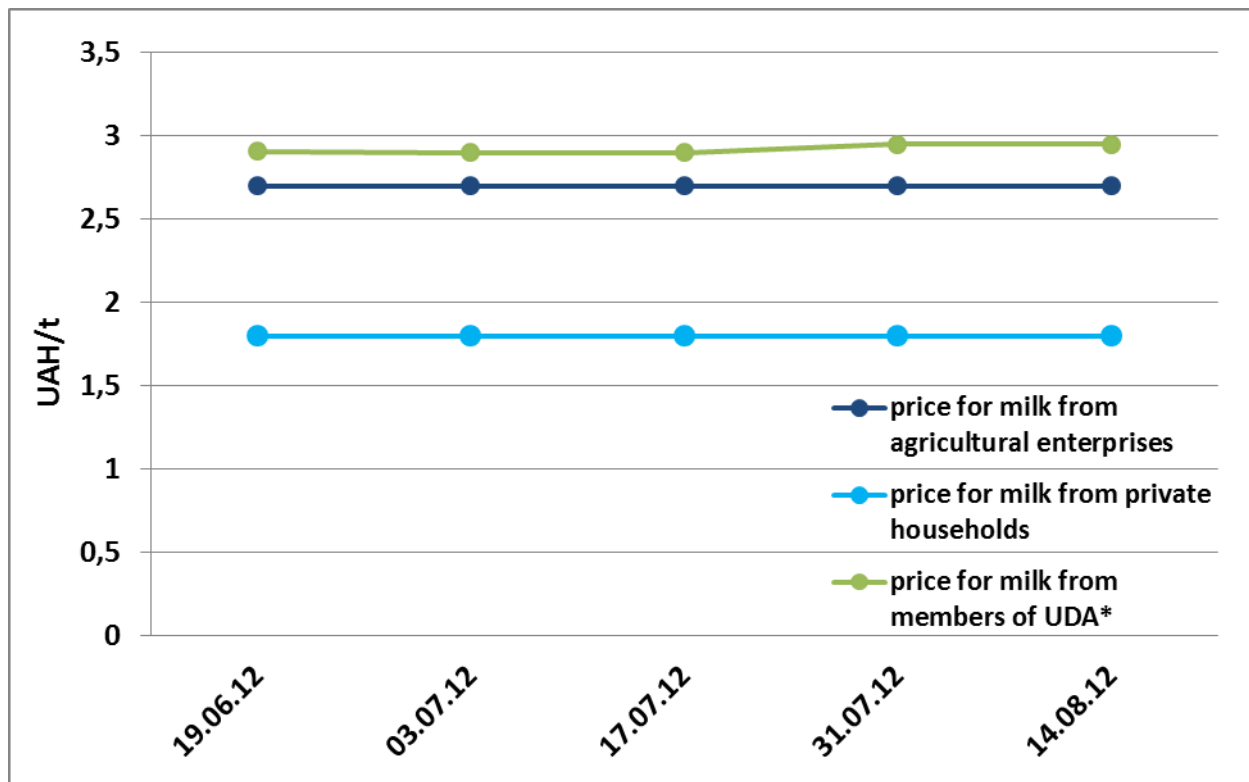

During July, the market of raw milk in Ukraine didn't noticeably change. The volume of milk production began to decline slowly, which is caused by a clear seasonality in the industry. However, processors have not felt in a shortage of raw milk base and hastened to raise the offer price. In addition, low world and European prices for milk products provoke the growth of imports to Ukraine, which does not stimulate domestic production.

* The price for milk from population listed in UAH/l

Fig. 1. Changes in prices for milk in Ukraine, July 2011 - July 2012 (processors' data)

As of August 14, milk from private households cost 1.8 UAH/l, and from agricultural enterprises - 2.7 UAH/kg. The price for milk from the farms belonging to the Association of dairy producers of Ukraine (ADP) has remained unchanged - 2.9 UAH/kg.

* The price for milk from population listed in UAH/l

Fig. 2. Changes in prices for milk in Ukraine in the context of weeks (processors' data)

MilkUa.info